

Building Relationships

Use the first two questions for note taking during each session.

1. What are you seeing and hearing today that resonates with you?

2. What can you use? What questions come up as you think about implementation?

Now think about your personal implementation plan!

3. How can you use it? Jot down your ideas that you think you can bring into your work this year.
