

Mission Statement

Letter to Self

The statements below serve as mission statements. Please thoughtfully consider how you can respond to each, and finish the statements provided. We will be gathering these statements in envelopes to be sent to you after the first month of your teaching experience. Write your first and last name on the envelope provided and either your school address or your personal address.

I am a teacher.

My core values that I bring to the profession are...

I believe I was hired because/became a teacher because...

Students are the reason I am here.

When it comes to learning, I believe they...

As a teacher, I want for them to...

School culture is an important part of who I become as a teacher.

I will work to become a part of the school culture by...

I will engage in my students' lives and the community outside of my classroom by...
